No more Scab in Sheep.

The undersigned an old sheep farmer in the south of this province after many years of study in the pernicious infirmity of the scab, has at last discovered an infallible remedy against a sickness that in the body where it generally breaks out like a storm resisting all the remedies that to this time have been discovered.

This specific so simple in its application as great in its result, is preferable to all invented until now, it is cheaper than tobacco, and free from poisonous substances contained in all other remedies before invented.

With only one arroba of my specific there is sufficient for the Scab of 800 or 1000 sheep, and at the low price of $ 160. I will facilitate all sheep farmers to cure their sheep in a perfect state of healthiness; to make known this remedy and induce farmers to prove it, I have determined to sell small packages of one $ at $8 which I hold at every ones disposition who wants to prove its infallibility.

Instructions for its application will be given in the deposit of specific against the scab:

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1 1864

THE FLORES CAMPAIGN.

We extract from the Reforma,

A hurly of 97 recruits, mostly Indians, left Buenos Aires in the 25th for Flores in his patriotic effort to upset the Oriental Republic. It is positively asserted that the captain of one of the foreign steam boats at anchor near Salto del Uruguay has informed his diplomatic representative in Montevideo that he witnessed the disembarkation of several boxes of arms and ammunition from the Argentine war vessel 'Juan Bautista', which were handed over to a force under the orders of Flores, lieutenant, the ex colonel Catalino Tiscornia. The Buenos Ayrean papers lied maniacally in announcing the capture of Paysandu the Caseguas, and to the bearer of the news, left Carmelo (which is by over 60 leagues distant from Paysandu), on the 27th, whereas despatches from the latter town, some hours later, contradict such statements.

Flores commenced his movements by Indian tactics, crossing and re-crossing a rapid river, to elude a pitched battle with Medina or Lamas who endeavored to harm his forces, numbers, with a force of 6000 men. The enemy, falling back, attempted to surprise Salto, but was driven off by a vigorous fire from the barricades under Colonel Lenguas who immediately dispatched one of the steamers down the river, and couriers in various directions to inform Lamas and Medina of Flores' success and to call the district authorities against surprise. The Floristas then seized upon all the fat lands in the neighborhood, and requested their manœuvre, by dashing on Paisandu, where they had a like ill fortune. On the 26th they were still near the town.

The official reports of Flores are incorrect. Col. Braga represents his force near Paysandú at 900 men, whereas English and German witnesses estimate the same at 1200 to 1500. He is also charged with wholesale horse-stealing; but we are informed he pays a good price for everything, as he gets funds from Rio Grande. At Paysandú, the firing was kept up between Flores' outpost and the latrincheros during the night, and on the 27th Col. Pinilla prepared to search out with infantry, cavalry and artillery, but the dilatoriness of some symptoms of retreating, and it is believed retired towards Carmelo on the 28th, Medina massing at the same time towards Salto Negro to intercept them.

The "Ville Soler" has been sent down to observe the "Mont Video" and Oriental coast, as it is known Flores expects arms from B. Ayres.

The "Reforma" supplement gives the latest intelligence

"On the 28th Flores' marauders fled from before Paysandú, and, flanked on every side by Lamas' and Medina's forces, fatally pushing forward to the "Paso de Quinteros." A letter dated Paysandú, 29th, says: on Tuesday morning the two armies were in sight, Caseguas was surprised a detachment of ours, and taking 3 prisoners. Captain Romero then with 60 men drove back the assailants, and a heavy rain fell until evening, when our troops re entered. Flores encamped on the night of the 27th at Tres Hilos, near Arroyo Negro, and on next day towards Villa Blanca: he is badly off for armament, some of his men being armed with lances and spears made and long knives. The Government troops also complain of inferior armament.

Salto, May 28th. Medina crossed the Queguay, on Flores' approach, at Paso Sacce, and succeeded in cutting off his retreat by the Cantillo Hacha. The Rio Negro is impassable at Quinteros, owing to the rains, and Flores must either fight Medina or surrender to Gen. Servando Gomez, who is in pursuit. Colonel Muñoz is scouring the country in search of the rebel Provisional Governor and his band, who were unable to effect a junction with Flores. Gen. Lamas is stationed at Paso Piedras, beyond the Arapey, by order of Medina.

Paysandú. The garrison here numbers 1200 men: we sent a strong cavalry force in pursuit of the filibusters, who had yesterday 4 men killed, and are represented to be in a miserable plight. Caraballo, Fausto Aguilar, Bernardez, and others are among the ringleaders. Flores complains of treachery of his partizans, who promised to receive him at Paysandú with open arms.

The Uruguay is so swollen that the works of the wharf at Salto had to be suspended. The French, Spanish and Italian ex-officers who have joined Flores on Salto and Paysandú The British gun-boat "Doterel" is also in the Uruguay, taking notes.

Monte Video, May 28th midnight.

We have just received advice from Medina that Flores attempted to ford the Paso de Andres Perez, S. of Rio Negro and we massed our forces this morning in pursuit of him.

Camp at Porongos, May 30th.

Latest news here is that Flores is near Paysandu. Our division is 600 strong, all well furnished and mounted, marches for the S. of the Rio Negro hoping to have the fortune of ridding the country of the scourge. Gen. Lamas is joined us yesterday with 400 men.

Gen. Servando Gomez has issued a proclamation at Flores' request. Gregorio Gobes, terminates thus "Death to the rebel Flores and all his gang."

MONTEVIDEO.

Napoleon III, who ignominiously rejected our Consul General, has consented to receive the Consul respectfully for another Argentine citizen: he has sent the Cross of officer of the Legion of Honor to D. Carlos Calvo, brother of the Foreign Minister and Paraguayan Minister at Paris, in acknowledgement of his services to literature in the value of his "Collection of Historical and Modern Treaties of Latin America."

M. Laurent Cochelet, new French consul for Paraguay has arrived at Montevideo. The Paraguayan press greatly extols President Lopez for sending 30 youths to study in Europe at the expense of the republics of the Plata: should imitate this example of Paraguay is drawn in the brightest colors; 5000 lbs. of ginned cotton was shipped per Arroyo Negro, Paysandu, coming from plantations near Asuncion.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Messrs. Wright and Kels have sent us through Mr Woodgate of this city, an account of the sale by auction of the emigration effects of the Standard, and also, for preserving Mr. Hoy, Colonist agent, that item the vice-Consulship. It may be remembered that we were the first to hint at the great want of a good English line of emigrant ships to this country, and we have not taken the hint, and we hope will do a successful business. In answer to the numerous enquiries made to us from parts, we beg to say that Messrs. Wright Green & Co, ship brokers of this city are steam. Wright and Kelso's agent, Bonnar Ayres.

The "Standard" is creating rather a sensation about River Plate matters at home; every steamer brings us some fresh evidence of the interest in the country, and not only in the leading London papers, but also in the provincial papers. Consignment Inward, we see our pocket reviews copied to extenso.

One Irish Baronet, we perceive is about to send out 200 strong able-bodied emigrants under his care.

The "London Money Market Review," a most influential paper amongst capitalists, exchanges with us, and extracts largely from our columns. We call attention to an article in a recent number upon foreign banks, in which the Standard is mentioned in most favorable terms of the River Plate Bank and its prospects.

In Ellrédie's communication to Congress, is before us: he suggests the propriety of establishing Legations in London and Paris. We consider that the Minister has got more expensive notions for so young a country; when our supplies are free of export duty, then Dr. Elizalde, we may begin to think about Legations but at present it is rather premature.

It is confidently asserted that Ministerial Candidate Don Tomkinson will pass; we hope that some better guarantees will be required, or the margin on the bonds increased, otherwise it is highly likely that Tomkinson stepping.

Several of our country subscribers, complain of a man named Castillo, who is using diligence canvassing for some time in the North. Our subscribers will please patronize Messrs. Mesquito, Sterling, Suarez, and Pablo Diaz, in case Mr North's they carry 4 or 5 copies of Weekly Standards for us every week, and the least we can do for such helping public carriers is to give them a send them to our subscribers, whose support alone, is able to maintain a coach of their own to any town in the country.

We congratulate a German subscriber on his having drawn the big prize in the lottery, and only wish that every supporter of the "Standard" would have the same luck.

We learn with much pleasure, that the Minister of War is indefatigable in his exertions to stop officers from leaving here to join Flores; we are but too glad to publish this fact, as we had serious doubts respecting Mr. Gelly's proclivities. It behoves the National Government, to use every exertion to clear itself before the public of any participation in the affair. It is a mistake to suppose that all Buenos Ayres is in favor of Flores; on the contrary, many of the leading Porteños, have remonstrated for the decided stand we have taken in the matter. All the wealthy influential men here agree with us. Mr. Gelly, minister of Flores, is calculated to do Buenos Ayres more injury than people are willing to admit.

In Congress, on Monday, there was rather a spirited debate on the subject of the Bermejo navigation. Some of the members, attaching greater value to the public funds than what they merit. After a rather lengthened discussion, the contract was passed.

The eclipse on Monday night seems to have taken most people by surprise; according to Dunne's Almanac for 1863, it is stated to be visible on the 1st June, at Greenwich, but the hour is not stated.

The inflation of prices to the children, on last Sunday, was a splendid affair. The Colon Theatre was crowded. The President occupied the Presidential box, and all the children who received premiums were in

Miss Angelina Pont, for good Moral Conduct
Miss Antonia Echeverria, for Industry
Miss Evaristi Pizarro, for Filial Affection
Miss Dorotea Santillan, for Fraternal Affection

Thousands of people were obliged to remain outside, owing to the crowded state of the House

There is a regular tide of emigration in for La Paz, Entre Rios. Several of our subscribers are already gone, and several more going. Yesterday we despatched two packets of cotton seed for the above destination. It will be recollected that only very recently an English merchant of this city brought to the notice of Congress, a mere trifle, near La Paz. Our country men are finding their way up there already; the cam a are well adapted for sheep rearing, and the climate for cotton growing. If Urquizu will only not meddle with the purchase and sale of private landed property, a matter of foreigners will be willing to invest in his province—land is so cheap, and Indian invasions unknown.

The other day we called attention to the praiseworthy efforts of Señor Cano to advance Rojas. Now it is our pleasing duty to inform our readers of the efforts of Señor Dr. Duncan who, out of his own private purse, is building a church on his estancia near to Salado. Happy, indeed, are we to find that individuals of wealth are beginning to be actuated by motives of public spirit. Sr Alzaga is spoken of highly by all foreigners who have the pleasure of knowing him. He wants no better recommendation. however, thus his own public acts to be regarded as a model patriotic Argentine. The present state of the camp is dreadful, but we have great confidence in the future, when such men as Alzaga and Duncan will be to praiseworthy an example to the rest of their countrymen

For 6 ace we find the "Nacional" on the night of the 28th, attack upon the Municipal lottery in the Plaza shows a spirit which we did not give our evening colleague credit for. The attack upon these gentlemen got wind of our remarks we understand, that Mr. Duncan has had the courage to reiterate our expressions. The "Nacional" very properly attacks the abuse of the lottery business, from beginning to end, is a shame on our Govt. This moment over one thousand young men, strong able, bodied, are loitering about the public lottery tickets, when, if this business was abolished, they would be working on our Railways. The Government dodges, however, was the best of all for out of 40,000 tickets 397,000 were blanks, what a shame!

We say, that a Platina mine has been discovered by Mr. Krueger at the foreign colony of Esperanza, samples were lorwarded to Rosario and pronounced excellent.

This gentleman has asked for a patent of right, which it is thought will be granted.

A subscriber informs us that he saw six large boxes of arms shipped for the Uruguay, the day before yesterday. The most extraordinary part of the story is that our informant states the boxes were accompanied by soldiers. Whose arms were they? we cannot say; but the shipment of arms at the present season seems rather strange.

The "Southern Cross" died in her last trip, not by the Oriental Government, but by a violent "pampero" encountered in her passage. Flores having failed to take Paysandu or Salto, is now bent on Colonia. Lamas and the rest are said to be a set of old women. Medina being the only good officer able to resist the invasion. An outbreak is feared in Montevideo.

The Alabama.

We have been kindly favored with the following extract from a letter of an English merchant of this city, who was actually on board this famed privateer :-

Bahia 12th May 1863.

I have just come from a visit to the Alabama We went to her in a small steamer, inquired when alongside if we could go on board, and in a few minutes received "Yes" as answer, hats off and were received at the gangway by the first lieutenant and several officers. so is the crew of 150 picked men and 22 fine officers. She is barque-rigged; every thing neat & clean as a new pin. She has 8 arms round masts, etc. She has six 32-pounders, one rifled 100-pounder, 6 great shells and can shift so as to fight seven guns on a broadside. Captain Semmes is a thin, tall wiry arms which have developed our resources, very affable in his manner, and one sad soldiers innumerable who, in his cabin he has about 60 chronometers, and he says "he has been good times." He has played Old Harry on the coast; destroyed a large number of vessels, and has done in here to land prisoners. There were 70 on board, all in irons, captains, captains and passengers. Among the prisoners were three ladies and children, who were in very low spirits; they told me they were not ill-used, but had lost their all, and are to be landed here. The Alabama came in here last night.

The last we have heard about the Confederate Privateer Florida, that she was in Brest, bound to Shanghai, with a valuable cargo worth half a million of patacons; Union Jack, bound to China; and Lark, bound to New York from China, with very valuable cargo.

BAHIA BLANCA IMMIGRATION.

Montevideo, May 30, 1863.

After having passed a rather sleepless night in a most uncomfortable (not-) (de la Concordia), i.e. discordia, the Hotel Oriental being full, I was surprised by a friend coming into my room, showing me your yesterday's paper.

I thank you very much, gentlemen, for your kind attentions, and I beg to say that I very much for you advice, if you were kind enough to let me hear from you from time to time. If you allow me I will send you my views on the banks of the Rhine; and you may be assured I shall remain, although absent, your friend and most obedient servant,

The districts of Rosario and Capilla have written their intention to do so. If there is any error in the above return, we beg to be advised of same.

AMERICAN WAR.

GEN. M'CLELLAN ON IRELAND.

On the 7th instant, a meeting was held at New York, in aid of the distressed Irish, at which Archbishop Hughes, General M'Clellan, General Meagher, and Judge Daly were the chief speakers. General M'Clellan's appearance was the signal for frantic applause. In the course of his address he said:—"I feel that I have strong and peculiar grounds for entertaining sympathy and interest in all that refers to Ireland and the Irish [applause]. I have strong myself from a Kindred origin. I have also cause to be loyal to the Irish to their Government and their general proved. I have seen the green flag of Erin side by side with our own stars and stripes amid the smoke and din of battle. I have witnessed the chivalry and bravery of the Irish race, when a boy, upon the fields of Mexico; and in maturer years I have seen those qualities again displayed on the fields of Maryland and Virginia (enthusiastic applause). It has often been my sad lot, but pleasant withal, to watch the cheerfully smiling faces of the Irish wh n suffering from painful and ghastly wounds. I have always, under all circumstances, found the Irish heart warm and true; and a race already said, I feel that I have a peculiar right to sympathise with your cause. It is most unfortunate that there are so many in Ireland who need our help and assistance but who are debarred at least thank God that he has given us the means to extend our hands to those in distress. It is unfortunate, perhaps, for Ireland that laws, with the making of which her people have had 54. so little to do and governments in which they have still less to say, have rendered Ireland the only country in Europe where famine has upheld the honour of their adoption by the country (great cheering). Therefore I say, we have gained what Ireland has lost. One thing more before I close. Although, as I said before, we have no right to interfere for no political purpose, yet no true friend of his country in the present crisis can repress altogether the thoughts that will crowd upon his brain. What is it that enables you to extend our hands in succour to your brethren across the Atlantic? What is it that our fathers worked for, and for what are we to work and are we asking now? It was to establish on this proud continent one nation, one free and independent nation, that might be a refuge for all from foreign lands. I know, then, that I express the sentiments of all who listen to me when I say that all our thoughts, all our means, and if necessary the last drop of our blood, must be given to uphold that unity, that nationality (great cheering)."

FUNERAL.—Yesterday, the funeral of Mrs Demarchi took place: the attendance was unusually large.

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

No. 49 Beaver street, New York, April 8 1863

During the month of March, which was quite an exciting one, prices, in the early part, advanced steadily above quotations, but towards the close of the month a reaction set in, and finally closed at a decline of from ½ to 1 cent.

The stock of domestic flours and grains is very light, and the demand for the purest increasing. The quotation—which will, however, all be needed to fill up the deficiency of dozens and pris e may not change much, as there is not enough foreign flour to supply the needs of the country, and the continuation of a good, steady demand.

The news from abroad is that of no extraordinary activity in trade, but the qualities looked after for our markets have gone above the point in most instances.

The London auctions of Australian and Cape wools are progressing at November and December prices, with the exception of the latter, which are 1d per lb. lower. Cape, called unchanged, but common unwashed, which alone can be had, being under the three cents duty with any good amount of Capes selling at 100. to 11 1d per lb. Good Mestos like rulins alone 94. exclusive of the duty.

There has been an improved demand on the Continent, at advancing prices based on the latter trade in general.

The Polish revolution, it is thought, may lead to different government supplies in Europe, and to advance the prices of medium and low wools.

Respectfully,

TELLKAMPF AND KITCHING.

Prices are very variable, and generally on the decline for fine wools, but common and inferior qualities are more firm. Greasy lots, and in bad condition, are hard to dispose of, having suffered a further decline of 1d centimes for Merinos and 2 to 10 for Mestizo's. In the last day's sale (23rd April) 1100 bales have been put up, and lower raised 5 or 10 centimes lower than on the previous days.

Liverpool, 23rd April.

The sales of River Plate salted hides during the first quarter amount to 8400 Uruguay ox, 66 lbs at 6d, tare 8½d. The stock is now reduced to 19,000 Buenos Ayres hides, sales 2177 Buenos Ayres, 39 at 10 33 lbs, 10s 6d to 11s. Tallow continues depressed, sold at 5 1-4.

MISCELLANEA.

In a stony creek 15 miles from Gatlemaine, Australia, there were recently discovered the bodies of aboriginals, quite whole, and not wanting in the smallest details, but which are patrifial into solid marble. They are in a sitting posture, and the veins, muscl es, &c, may be distinctly traced through what is now a group of stone blocks; they are in a splendid state of preservation, even the finger nails, teeth, and hair being perfect as they were 200 years ago. One of them has a stone axe by his side without any haft.

LOCAL EVENTS.

MONTEVIDEO.—Two steamers: the Money and Liverpool arrived yesterday from Montevideo bringing about 80 passengers but no cargo.

THE CATHEDRAL.—The quantity of stuff falling from the scaffolding in front of the Cathedral whilst the men were working and angered the lives of the passers by, is a most unwarrantable negligence and ought to be looked to.

OLD PLAZA.—The old plaza, has quite a gay appearance now that the arch is newly painted, the railing and walks finished, and new lamp posts erected.

IMMIGRANTS.—6 barque emigrants arrived yesterday. The railway man had better look sharp up.

EL PENSAMIENTO ARGENTINO is the title of a new weekly paper about to be started: we salute our future Colleague as the champion of Peace, Industry and Religion with which we heartily wish it the best of success.

THE ECLIPSE.—On Monday night the city was thrown into some confusion, owing to the discrepancy between the moon and the Gas orders: such things should not be tolerated in a well established Republic, as we call Mr. Duncan's Colonia for the matter. The almanacks are all gone astray this year in their lunar calculations, but the eclipse was quite complete by correct: until 1p.m. 9 o'clock.

THE WESTERN RAILWAY.—Gov ernment advertises for 200 peons the extension works are to be commenced.

THE CORDOVA RAILWAY.—The works of this road are progressing rapidly: 150 men are daily employed.

THE ALABAMA.—We call attention to the extract from a letter of a gentleman who was on board this celebrated privateer.

SALUTE.—We salute our bonsiable friend Sr. Muratore, and congratulate him on his new grade of Colonel, which he well deserved.

OUR MARKETS.—The prices of beef are extremely high; the butchers excuse themselves on the plea that fat cattle are so scarce that the price of oxen has risen $70 per head.

THE NEW OPERA COMPANY.

—An Opera Company has arrived per Saxonia.

Donna Donna Soprane, Marieta Molin, Contralto ..... Ida Vitale.
1st. Tenor ..... Benito Rinolfi.
Baritone ..... Jose Bartolina.
Bass ..... P. de Antoni.

This company has lately played with great success at Rio Janeiro and Montevideo. It will make its debut at Colon on Saturday evening, in Traviata. The redertoire is tres recherché.

MEDINA.—One of our leading brokers, who arrived yesterday from Flores, states that it is feared the troops of the garrison will proclaim for Flores Gen. Medina has been obliged to shoot numbers of deserters.

Up Change.

June 30th.

The Bolsa was hardly open this morning, when buyers made their appearance. Quotes opened at 20 m. p. 11 at 45 1-2 towards noon, they were selling at 45, but at 1 o'clock they looked up again and closed firm at 446,

Only 710 Doublloons were sold for cash. On time however the sales were heavy

Dec. 31st 500 at do

The talk on the boles was principally about, the Rices affair and his supposed proximity to Cuzco.

The result of last night debate on the Chascomus Railway, also was disfavorable the general belief, being that the most difficulties which so long retarded the commencement of the work are now over come. The contract with Mess Pedo Bates will now be sent in for approval, and it is thought will be at once ratified.

In the Plates things are very dull; the following are the only sales we know of.

400 arrobas wool at 63; 500 do bor, Peres at 63; 100 do fine merino at 94. 50 ox hides mixed at 112.

On the Bolsa.

48 bales E. R. wool at 20 rls; 3000 arrobas good merino wool reserved price; 200 tens of cal ex Caravel from Troon at 10 3/4 pats. on boards

The N. E. V. A. has been freight at 37s 6d and 5 p. S per ton for orders to load salted hides and tallow in the rivers.

None of the Banks appear anxious to change the rate of interest for the month, although we are told that there is not only good demand for gold, but that paper is beginning to be felt scarce.

We heard of a small exchange transaction on England, but will not publish the figure regardi g it as premature,

We are informed of a sale of half a league of Government land in the Partido Quilmes at a price at rate of One million papers Dollars the league.

The demand for capones is increasing owing to the poor condition of the cattle, several sales have been effected in the north at dols 46 and do's 45.

The National Government has handed over to the Bank, 4 millions mpe to be burnt.

The change in the law respecting the value of the Doubloon in paper money is beginning to show its effect. None can deny but only the right but from the expediency of issuing such a salutary change, but we all condemn the extreme suddenness with which the changes are effected.

The Mutual Life Assurance Society being street Cheapside London has established its agency in Buenos Ayres, No. 172, calle San Martin we have not heard the rates of premium charged but Mr. Newbaith the agent has promised to acquaint us with them immediately.

Through the kindness of a German merchant of this city we have been favored with the following statement of the Antwerp wool market.

From Montevideo we learn that business is very dull; the revolution in the interior, acting very prejudicially on Cerrolito interests.

The following is a list of the stock of produce on hand on the 29th May '63.

51,200 dry hides
7,600 horse hides
2,700 do. sheep skins
63 bales of hair
15 do hide cuttings
20,800 arrobes wool
50 pipes sweet grease
200 tons bones
60,000 horns

The sales are very trifling 200 barrels alcohol ex Anne Kimball N. Y. 28 grades 66 dols. 28 cents on board.

153 barrels brown Sugar, ex Nayo Alexandre from Rio Janeiro at 1 dol. 50 cents despatched,

3,000 salted Horse hides at 13 rls.

The cargo of silk ex Marcellus at 9 1/2 rls on 4 months time for Uruguay.

The cargo of Ellen Hood and several other vessels, is coming up to Buenos Ayres there being no demand for anything except gunpowder. Pins is a great deal cheaper in Montevideo than here. Several American vessels now over due, are hourly expected, and great fears are entertained for their safety owing to the proximity of the "Alabama."

The [Montevidean Government, is about concluding a contract with an English contractor, for the construction of a railway to Union.

The stock of hides in New[illegible] at latest dates, was 230,000, of which, 91,000 are from the River Plate. Hides have a downward tendency in the States, the demand being very limited.
